FALL LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE WITH THE DENVER NUGGETS

Description: While attending HOSA Fall Leadership Conference, students will have the opportunity to expand their leadership potential and develop skills for goal setting, problem solving, decision making and interpersonal communication necessary in the health care workforce. Activities at the conference will include leadership development workshops, HOSA informational workshops and health career professional workshops. Also, HOSA will be introduced and promoted at the Nuggets game that evening.

Objectives: To provide a learning environment that challenges HOSA member's leadership potential; nurtures personal development through the teaching of leadership and communication skills and community values.

To introduce careers in the sports industry that are of interest to the students in HOSA. Students may be able to hear about the careers and career paths of the Denver Nuggets Staff, discussing their positions in:

- Strength and Conditioning
- Sports Medicine
- Other Health Care Careers
- Human Resources
- Leadership/Community

Also, various Colorado Colleges Representatives will be on hand to discuss which programs they offer at their respective colleges/universities that could lead them to one of the careers they learned about that day and many others.
